

Inauguration Night In Narberth Tuesday

NEW BURGESS TO ASSUME OFFICE.
COUNCIL TO BEGIN WORK
FOR 1922.

On Tuesday evening, January 3rd, in Council Chamber, in the Fire Company Building, on Forrest avenue, our newly elected Borough officials will meet and our local government will begin its work for the year 1922.

Just about twenty-six years old is the Borough of Narberth, and getting bigger and better every year.

In no like period of the Borough's history as in the last four years has so much progress been made, nor has our Borough been more excellently managed, particularly in regard to finance, which is the vital point in any management of public affairs.

Too much credit cannot be given our Councilmen who have served during the past term of office and who, fortunately, have been re-elected practically as a body. It is to be hoped that they will wisely reflect as their President for the coming four years the one who has served so ably and faithfully—Mr. William R. D. Hall.

Our retiring Burgess, Mr. Carroll Downes, will hand over the reins of office to our former Councilman, elected November 5th—Burgess Carl B. Metzger.

This meeting on Tuesday evening, as are the regular monthly meetings of Council, is open to the public, and we should turn out and see how and by whom our Borough affairs are managed.

The regular January meeting will be held on the second Monday, the 9th, at which meeting the budget for 1922 will be published and the tax millage rate fixed.

Happy New Year, Borough Council!
We are with you—3,697 strong.

Community Club Christmas Meeting

MISS MARGARET MCCOY SPEAKS
ON SOUTH AMERICA—CHRIST-MAS CAROLERS APPEAR IN COSTUME.

At the meeting held last Tuesday the Christmas spirit was in full sway. The first greeting was the display of holly wreaths and greens festooned on all four walls, and garlands in the windows. The President, Mrs. E. C. Batchelor, opened the meeting with the reading of a Christmas poem. The Christmas Committee reported sending Christmas baskets to the residents of the town who are unfortunate in being nipped through illness.

The address by Miss Margaret McCoy on "Latin America," taught the value of knowing our neighbors of South America and Mexico.

Miss McCoy's view of the Limitation of Armament Conference was that it could not be a success without the acquaintance of these people. It will be Brazil, Argentina and Chile who will sit at the head of the table at the Pan American Conference. South America is composed of three strong republics as a result of the Monroe Doctrine. They are still in a feudal state of society, however, the Spanish Indian or Creole being the upper class and the native Indian the lower class.

Miss McCoy cited many products we obtain from these people as a reminder of their importance to the United States. As from Brazil we obtain coffee, vanilla, rubber and hides; from Mexico, vanilla and chewing gum; from Peru, wool and cotton; chocolate from Ecuador; iodine from Chile; bananas from Honduras; asphalt from Lake Trinidad; sugar from Cuba, and hides from Argentina; and still further,

A Complete Weather Station at Narberth

LOCAL MAN HAS FINE METEOROLOGICAL EQUIPMENT—RECORDS OF NARBERTH WEATHER IN WASHINGTON RECORDS.

Mr. Charles Decker, of Narberth, is the possessor of a very complete and most interesting collection of scientific instruments for the recording of weather conditions in Narberth.

Not only does this equipment include a large number of very exact thermometers and barometers, but he has several automatically recording machines, which keep a constant and accurate record of the changes in weather conditions during the absence of the recorder. Among these are a self-recording thermometer, barometer, and hygrometer, an instrument to measure the amount of humidity in the air.

Part of this equipment is kept in Mr. Decker's home, while a large part, including the rain and snow gauge, is located in the yard. The self-recording instruments, actuated by clock-work, are contained in a protected "coop," open to the air, but protected from the sun. These instruments are removed far enough from the house so as to be free from any influence from that source, and by means of them a thorough and very accurate analysis of Narberth's daily weather conditions is always available.

The Equipment.

The following is a list of the meteorological instruments used by the Cooperative Observer of the Weather Bureau at Narberth:

1. Standard Mercurial Barometer, which can be read to a thousandth of an inch.

2. Barograph, a self-recording barometer that traces on a chart from hour to hour the fluctuations of air pressure.

3-4. Standard Maximum and Minimum Thermometers, for obtaining the highest and lowest temperature of each 24 hours.

5. Thermograph, a self-recording thermometer that makes a continuous trace on a chart of the changes of temperature.

6. Sling Psychrometer, for ascertaining the humidity and the dew point.

7. Hygograph, a self-recording instrument which traces on a chart the rise and fall of the humidity.

The self-recording instruments all revolve by clock-work, the charts being changed each week.

8. Rain and Snow Gauge.

Observations from these instruments are taken twice a day. The records are entered daily in triplicate on the official forms of the Weather Bureau. At the end of each month the report is made up, one copy going to the Weather Bureau at Philadelphia, another to the Bureau at Washington, D. C., while the third is kept for reference at Narberth. The data from these reports appear regularly in the Pennsylvania section of the monthly bulletins published by the Weather Bureau. A condensed report for the week is sent to Our Town each week, and is a regular feature of the paper. By referring to the minimum temperature records, many arguments about our local frigidty may easily be settled.

New Ordinance Passed For Special Election

CONFIRMING ELECTION ON PLAYGROUND QUESTION, TO BE HELD ON MONDAY, FEBRUARY 6TH.

Council has unanimously passed, and the Burgess has signed the new ordinance, calling for a reelection on the Proposed Playground.

The special election will be held on Monday, February 6th, 1922, in Elm Hall. It will not be an election to decide the question of the advisability of the Playground, but will be merely to confirm the previous very favorable majority.

In the regular election in November the question was O. K'd by the voters by a vote of 735 to 250. An error in printing the ballots resulted in the election being declared invalid. Councils at once introduced a new ordinance identical with the original with the exception of the changed date, and this new ordinance passed its three readings unanimously.

County to Foot Bill.

The error in the original ballot resulted from carelessness in the office of the County Commissioners at Norristown. The Chief Clerk failed to mail a proof of the ballot to Judge of Elections Kirkpatrick in advance of the election, and the error, which would have made it a School District loan, remained undetected until the time of the election.

In view of the fact that the entire blame for the dereliction rests with the County Offices, they have agreed to stand the expense of the special confirmatory election in February.

Narberth men who have been working on the Playground project have done a great deal of research on the question of the results of such a misprinted ballot. It is said that no similar blunder ever occurred in the history of any municipality in the country. This gives Narberth something of a distinction, which, in some measure, may compensate for the delay to a big civic improvement. And we can be proud of the fact that the distinction is not marred by any mistake on the part of our local government.

The confirming election affords Narberth the rare opportunity of doing something customary in parliamentary procedure; granting the majority the courtesy of a unanimous vote on the second ballot, where the wishes of the majority have so clearly been defined.

Alumni Association Holds Annual Meeting

OFFICERS FOR COMING YEAR
CHOSEN AT MEETING HELD TUESDAY EVENING.

The annual business meeting of the Narberth High School Alumni Association was held in the High School Building on Tuesday evening of this week.

Routine business was transacted, plans for the dance which took place the following night discussed, and officers elected for 1922. A larger poll was made this year than at any previous election, as printed ballots were mailed to members in advance of the meeting, and many sent their ballots in by mail.

New Officers.

The results of the election were as follows:

President, Charles H. McCarter, Jr.
Vice-President, Carroll Downes, Jr.
Recording Secretary-Treasurer, Ruth E. Haws.
Corresponding Secretary, Helen Keim.
Chairman Social Committee, Jane Laird.
Chairman of Publicity, Philip A. Livingston.
Chairman Refreshment Committee, Emma L. Mueller.

Seniors Star In One-Act Plays

"TOO MUCH BOBBIE" AND "THE FLOWER SHOP" SUCCESSFULLY PRESENTED BY STUDENTS.

The Seniors of the Narberth High School exhibited their stage talents in no small measure at the School Auditorium Thursday evening, December 22.

The first one-act play given dealt with two sisters living with their aunt. The plot of the play is centered about a mistake, that of getting one of the sister's boy friends mixed up with her dog, both of which had the same name, "Bobby." The play was full of many humorous situations. The cast was as follows:

RitaMargaret Fowler
Nancy Browler.....Martha Martin
Miss Kent (Aunt).....Lucia Keim
AliceVerna Malby
Miss Gilfin (Cousin).....Florence Simpson
Sophie (Maid).....Elvera Cruman
"The Florist Shop" was the name of the second play. The scene was laid in a flower shop. Maude, the girl who

New Year's Eve in Narberth

What's doing in Narberth on New Year's Eve? Ask any active member of the Fire Company, or better still, come over to Elm Hall. If you don't know where it is, ask the first person you meet when you start over and they'll direct you.

The important thing is to be there; everybody else will, and it will be a fine chance to get acquainted with your neighbor and his best girl.

It's a dance, of course. What else would it be on New Year's Eve?

A real Jazz Orchestra. We don't know where they get it, but they sure do—one of those orchestras that would make a man with two wooden legs dance. There will be punch to wet your whistle—near Volsteadski punch—and favors and fancy caps and confetti—not too much—and sometimes lots of light and sometimes not too much, and everything.

And you'll see the new Elm Hall all jolled up, new metal ceiling, new lighting and new paint—not too new—and when you buy that pair of tickets you'll be helping to pay for the improvements.

Oh! you must come over!

Editorial

NARBERTH AND 1922.

Much has been accomplished by Narberth in recent years, a large part of which shows to the credit of 1921.

Since 1915, when the "Civic Era" can be said to have started, nearly every big organization and project in our little borough came into being. One by one they have been added to the list, until now we have nearly a dozen organizations "on their toes."

Notable among the accomplishments of the past year we can count the opening of the new tennis courts, extensive highway improvements, the rapid development of our Choral Society, the opening of the Community Library to the public, and the real work on the forthcoming Playground.

1922 presents even greater problems, among which we might include:

An adequate and safer bridge over the railroad.

The development and improvement of new roads, and a continuation of our present excellent repaving program.

The final confirming vote and start of actual work on the big civic improvement of the year, the Outdoor Recreation Center.

A speedy solution of our ever-growing public school problem.

Our long-deferred, often-promised and much-needed station improvements.

These do not by any means include all of the matters to be tackled this coming year, but they stand out of the list.

No one doubts that Narberth is Philadelphia's most progressive suburb, but there remains much to be done!

RESOLUTIONS.

It is seldom that an advertisement in Our Town (with the exception of political advertisements) arouses particular comment among our readers.

For the past two weeks, however, we have heard from all quarters favorable remarks concerning Mr. Robert J. Nash's advertisement, which appeared in our Christmas issue. In endeavoring to formulate a list of New Year's resolutions, we have come to the conclusion that we cannot do better than the subject matter of his advertisement, and we reprint the same herewith:

BE SURE TO INCLUDE IN YOUR NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTIONS:
To join as a contributing member the Narberth Fire Company! Dues, $5.00 per year, no membership fee. Send checks to Chief Charles V. Noel, Narberth and Woodbine Avenues. Do you realize that this Fire Company, by assuring its splendid equipment and organization, is saving you real money in insurance premiums? The Fire Department has given Narberth a double rate of insurance on the Narberth Fire Company.

Once again, let us thank you, you men, for the help of the Boy Scout Headquarters, at Essington, Elmwood Avenue. It will be a considerable encouragement to Scout Master Patten and the boys to have you take this interest. As you know, did you know our Boy Scout Troop ranks No. 1 in the Main Line District? Congratulations, Scout Master! Hold your place, fellows.

Our Borough Government is tremendously interested in the progress of Narberth. They welcome your constructive criticism, suggestions and cooperation. They are generously devoting their time and efforts without compensation. Resolve now to occasionally "check in" at Council Meetings and watch the wheels of Government go round.

Remember the Meetings of the Home on School Association. You will find this a very interesting event at the Narberth school children in your family. Back up the Narberth Chorus, a splendid advertisement of "Our Town." Listen while your wife tells you of the meetings of the Women's Community Club. Learn how to conduct an organization this Club and when it comes to the Women of Narberth. Help the Tennis Club, and next year's family to some real pleasure by attending their social affairs. Take a lively interest in Narberth's Recreation Center, which promises to be one of our real big, constructive accomplishments. Don't forget the Civic Association and "Our Town."

We are citizens of no mean town. Be glad you live in Narberth. Join one of its organizations, and community spirit. Patronize the local store.

And resolve to do your part to make a stronger, and better Narberth in 1922!

Communications

To the Editors of Our Town:

The editor was interested in the letter in your Christmas issue from Mr. A. B. Evans, advocating a better late train service.

The great amount of inconvenience suffered by commuters who wish to stay in the city after midnight would certainly be reduced if such a rearrangement of the schedule was made. It seems to me to be thoroughly practical to put on a later train, for, as the writer understands it, the crew of the last train must stay in Paoli till the following morning in order to run the first train to Broad Street.

I certainly trust the railroad will listen to these requests for a much needed improvement in our late train schedule, and I wish to add my voice to the request.

TRANE RYDER.

THE JOY HABIT.

Some people think that smiles are wrong.

They've lived a life of gloom so long; To light their faces with a grin Most seems unpardonable sin. They overlook the fact that joy And mirth will often let them toy With disappointment, pain or sorrow That may perhaps be theirs tomorrow. Good hearty laughter's merry sound Makes all low spirits upward bound. A surer aid no one can ask To help out with the daily task That fairly grinds one down and out And opens up the realms of doubt. The cheerful habit seems to be A better one for you and me To cultivate. So why not do it? Spread joy about. You'll never rue it!

COLLUM RIGHTER.

VIRGINIA ABEL'S SISTER.

Yes, we are a little late with the news, but it's a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year at No. 18 Narbrook Road. Congratulations, Mr. and Mrs. Abel, and welcome to our city, Elinor Darwin Abel.

7.45 P. M.—Evening worship. Sermon theme, "Redeeming the Time." Christmas music repeated.
Church Notes.

This Christmas season, with its wealth of music and good cheer, has been the most notable in the history of this Church. We step out into the New Year with glad hearts, rejoicing in the Fellowship of Service and the Consolation of a Blessed Hope.

Selections from the beautiful Christmas music rendered by our quartet and chorus last Sunday will be repeated at both the morning and evening service tomorrow.

The all-day meeting of the women of the church will be next Wednesday. At 10.00 A. M. the Women's Auxiliary; at 1.00 P. M. luncheon, and at 2.00 P. M. the Missionary Society, which will be addressed by Mrs. Charles G. Trumbull. Next Sunday, January 8, will be held the Quarterly Communion service with public reception of New members. Preparatory meeting next Wednesday evening, followed by Session meeting. The Session will also meet next Friday evening at the home of Elder A. G. Compton.

ENTERTAINMENT BY THE CHILD'S GARDEN.

A delightful little entertainment was given at the home of Mrs. Andrew Greene, of Chestnut avenue, on December 29th, by the little children of "The Child's Garden," conducted by Miss Margaret Aronoff, of Rockland avenue. The little tots sang their Christmas carols, played their kinder garden games and exhibited beautiful scrap books made during school hours or the children's visits at hospitals in Philadelphia.

To the mothers and friends present it was a very pleasant surprise to see such progress made by the kiddies in their two months of work under Miss Aronoff.

NEXT TENNIS DANCE TO BE HELD FRIDAY EVENING, JANUARY 20.

The next of the popular dances given by the Narberth Tennis Association will be held on Friday evening, January 20, at Elm Hall. Members of the Association and their friends will be glad to learn that the Entertainment Committee has again secured the services of Stock's Orchestra, which provided the music at last winter's dances, for this January 20 affair, and for future dances throughout the season.

So, folks, here's your first engagement for the New Year. Put down the date—Friday evening, January 20, Elm Hall, in that new diary, and make no other engagement for that evening.

CHRISTMAS ANTHEMS REPEATED.

The choir of the Methodist Church will sing Christmas anthems next Sunday morning.

The evening program will include a portion of the Christmas cantata, including the soprano solo, "O, Jerusalem," Mrs. Bradley; "The Awakening chorus," with selection by three part women's voices, "Put on Thy Beautiful Garments," duet, "He Shall Feed His Flock," Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Warden; "The Annunciation," alto solo, Miss Compton; "He Shall Be Great," tenor solo, Mr. Stanley and chorus; "Virgin's Lullaby," alto solo, Mrs. Warden.

Ash Collection

Starting with the first Monday in January, 1922, kindly leave all ash containers at side or rear of house, as we wish to do away with the unsightly boxes, etc., along the streets.

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow-townsmen, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register.

As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 2 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.

Of Interest To All Owners of Dogs

Montgomery County's supply of dog license tags and blanks for 1922 have been forwarded to County Treasurer Irvin H. Bardman and the license fees can be paid at the Treasurer's office and the new license tags secured any time after next Monday. There have been 14,000 individual license tags and 225 kennel tags forwarded to the County Treasurer's office, and it is believed that this number will supply the demands of Montgomery County for the coming year.

Last year there were 7,136 licenses issued in Montgomery County, while the county paid out $723.38 in claims for loss or injury of sheep, poultry and livestock. The Bureau of Animal Industry of the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture has been designated as the agency for the enforcement of the new dog law which becomes effective on January 15 next, and under the provisions of which the new licenses are being issued. Officials of the Bureau will cooperate with the local police in an effort to reduce the county's losses and also to see that every dog in the county is properly licensed.

Under the provisions of the "Dog Law of 1921" every owner or keeper of a dog six months old or over must secure a dog license on or before January 15, 1922.

Application for such license may be made direct to the County Treasurer or through any Notary Public, Justice of the Peace, Alderman or Magistrate of the district where such owner or keeper resides. Application forms are furnished by the County Treasurer to such officers.

The license fee is uniform throughout the State, with the exception of cities of the first and second class, $1.10 for each male or spayed female dog, and $2.10 for each female dog.

The County Treasurer is allowed a fee of 10 cents for each license issued whether the application is made direct to him or through the local officer.

Where the application is made through a local officer an additional fee of 15 cents is allowed for the service of such officer in preparing the application and forwarding same with license fee to the County Treasurer. Self addressed and stamped envelope must also be enclosed where application is mailed the County Treasurer.

Where it is inconvenient for an applicant to call personally at the office of the County Treasurer and such applicant desires to secure the license direct from the County Treasurer, he can secure an application blank from the County Treasurer, prepare the same and mail it with the required fees and return stamped envelope direct to the County Treasurer.

Indemnity blanks for reporting damages to livestock and poultry done by dogs can be secured from the County Treasurer and also the Bureau of Animal Industry of the Department of Agriculture, Harrisburg, Pa.

TEA IN THE PARK.

Mrs. Walter A. Fox and Mrs. James B. Mackenzie were hostesses at a tea given at the latter's home, 24 Narberth Park, last Wednesday.

The house was lighted with red candles, no other illumination being used. Mrs. William H. Donaldson, Mrs. O. V. Kruse, Mrs. Kern W. McHose, and Mrs. George A. Mahl assisted in pouring. The guests also included:

Mrs. Victor D. Abel, Mrs. Joseph R. Aiken, Miss Ida Buckman, Mrs. Robert J. Dothard, Mrs. Robert Durbin, Mrs. Elizabeth J. Edgar, Mrs. Arthur N. Edrop, Mrs. William C. Johnson, Mrs. Hervey O. Keim, Mrs. J. M. Peters, Mrs. Alban C. Reed, Mrs. Albert G. Stephenson, Mrs. F. T. Van Aiken, Mrs. John Van Ness, Mrs. Horton Williamson, Mrs. A. E. Wohlert.

BEAUTIFUL CHRISTMAS SERVICE IN ALL SAINTS' CHURCH.

A Christmas service long to be remembered by those in attendance was held in All Saints' Church on Christmas morning. The new pews had arrived late on Saturday and were put into service at once by the congregation which filled the enlarged building to capacity.

Thirty-five members of the choir slowly wending their way up the aisle to the Adeste Fideles, by an odd coincidence, reached the third verse just as they entered the new chancel and the "Glory to God in the highest" simply thrilled every one within its hearing. The climax of the musical program, however, came later during Communion in Stanford's beautiful Sanctus, "Holy, Holy, Lord God of hosts. Heaven and earth are full of Thy glory. Glory be to Thee, O Lord most high. Amen."

Both choirs have been working hard and faithfully during the past year, under most trying circumstances, caused by lack of space and other general inconveniences, but everything was forgotten on Christmas morning in the joy of their new surroundings, which resulted in a dignified and well sung service.

These men and women are looking forward with the keenest pleasure to a Happy New Year in this beautiful work which the rector and his associate wish them and all other members and friends of the parish.

The pews are all free and you will find a cordial welcome. A free auto bus leaves Narberth Station each Sunday morning at 10:15, returning after service.

A TYPOGRAPHICAL ERROR.

We note that a rather unfortunate error slipped through the eagle eye of our proof reader last week. In the report of the work of the Holiday House, on page 4, appeared the sentence, "We have $15.00 in our treasury to date from the recital."

As most of our readers no doubt surmised, the period belonged two ciphers farther along. The incomplete returns from the Choral Metropolitan Concert show that the net receipts turned over to the Holiday House amounted to over $1,500.00 (Fifteen Hundred Dollars), and later returns will no doubt swell that sum.

Narberth can well be proud of the splendid work and ever-increasing scope of the King's Daughters' Holiday House.

ENGAGEMENT CANCELED.

Mr. Frederick W. Wile, well-known Washington correspondent, will be unable to keep his engagement to speak before the Women's Community Club on January 10th.

The following telegram has been received:

Deeply regret prolongation of Conference, and after that require me to cancel all outside engagements. This will prevent my coming to Narberth on January 10th.

A new speaker for this meeting will be announced next week.

The Lunch Room of Narberth Schools

REPORT SUBMITTED TO HOME AND SCHOOL ASSOCIATION.

Frequently the high school girls and particularly the members of the Domestic Science Class assist Miss Olsen in the preparation of the food served.

The finances are looked after by Professor Wilson and Mrs. Cruter, who act as cashier in the lunch room, and who also see that all bills for supplies are properly checked and paid for out of the funds received in the lunch room.

Luncheon is served from 11:30 A. M. to 12:30 P. M., in two half-hour sections. The high school children lunch from 11:30 to 12:00 noon, and the lower grade pupils lunch from 12:00 to 12:30 P. M. Professor Wilson and the other members of the faculty regularly eat their lunch with the children.

Only substantial foods, and the recognized standard brands of cakes, bread, milk and ice cream, are provided for the children.

Owing to the large volume of work which must be done in order to feed the several hundred pupils within the space of an hour, it is almost impossible to exercise any great amount of censorship over the luncheon selected by the individual child. A general check is kept on this, however, first by the teacher serving the food, and next by the cashier, who makes a quick observation of the lunch selected by the pupil at the time he or she makes payment. It sometimes is necessary to request a child to return some of the food, in case there is too much of one particular variety and not enough of another.

The children, however, more or less guide themselves in this respect and by providing only those dishes which will form a substantial lunch, and of which a pupil would not care to eat to excess, it is rather the exception than the rule that children even in the fifth grade—the lowest one in which the pupils take advantage of the school lunch—select improper and unsuitable lunches.

The menu is varied from day to day, although from week to week it is practically the same. A typical day's lunch is, for instance, soup, macaroni and cheese, sandwiches, milk or cocoa, ice cream, and small cakes.

In the matter of soup, this dish is available every day, as for instance, tomato soup one day, pea soup the next, then vegetable soup. A different kind of soup is served every day, although from week to week, naturally the varieties are repeated.

When baked macaroni and cheese is served one day, it may be followed the next day by baked beans, then by scalloped potatoes, or scalloped fish. On some day there may be potatoes in some form served with one of these other dishes. With the exception of potatoes, only one of these dishes is available each day.

Sandwiches are available at all times. They consist principally of ham and plain butter. With the plain butter sandwiches, the teachers point with pride to the fact that they are buttered on both sides. Lettuce sandwiches are served at times, but they are not in as great demand as the other two varieties mentioned.

Milk is procured from the Scott-Powell Dairies. Ice cream is furnished by the Colonial Ice Cream Company. These two items are available every day, as is also cocoa. This is prepared just prior to the lunch hour each day, and is kept hot at all times.

Rolls and bread are procured from Freihofer's; small cakes from the National Biscuit Company, soup stocks from Heinz, or Campbell. Baked beans are also supplied by Heinz and Campbell Companies.

In order to give some idea as to the cost to the pupil, the following is an exact copy of the Bill of Fare which was posted on a black board in the lunch room last Tuesday, December 6th:

(To be Continued Next Week.)

Alumni Association Holds Annual Meeting

Executive Board, Margaret K. Eyre, Elizabeth Speakman.

The new list of officers includes four from last year, who will work with the new members of the Executive Board in formulating plans for the new year's activities.

Charles McCarter, Jr., the new President, was Chairman of Publicity last year, and was one of the most active members of the Executive Board, greatly assisting the other officers in effecting the re-organization of the Association. The members feel that, under his leadership, the Alumni will accomplish much in the coming year.

THE FIRESIDE

Miss Margaret McCoy, who spoke at the meeting of the Women's Community Club last Tuesday, was entertained at dinner after the meeting by Mrs. W. B. Goodall, of Dudley avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dothard, of Wynnewood avenue, attended the Dinner Dance given by the Matinee Musical Club at the Bellevue-Stratford last Tuesday evening.

The initial supply of the "new issue" 5% Government bonds sent to the Narberth Post Office has been sold and an additional supply ordered. These bonds sell for $20.00 and $80.00 for $25.00 and $100.00 bonds.

The Women's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian Church will entertain the directors of the Needlework Guild on Wednesday, January 4th, 1922, at 10.00 A. M. The meeting will be held in the lecture room of the Presbyterian Church.

An unusual feature in connection with the parcel post mail was the fact that there were no parcels received at the Narberth Post Office which could not be delivered due to lost or destroyed addresses or insufficient addresses. In former years there have been many such parcels.

Several young people of Narberth attended the dance given at the Sherwood Field Club, on Cobb's Creek Boulevard, last Tuesday night. The dance was given by the Misses Anna Taitt and Jennie Briley, of Philadelphia. The guests from Narberth included the Misses Mary Chalfant, Helen Moran, Florence Haaf, and Dorothy Wilson, and Messrs. Thomas Martin, Gilbert Ford, Ralph Beatty, and John Wilson.

APPRECIATION.

The Postmaster and the patrons are indebted to the regular clerks and carriers and the substitutes employed during the rush days, for the prompt delivery and the complete clean up which was made by 12 o'clock on Christmas Day.

EDWARD S. HAWS,
Postmaster.

Community Club Christmas Meeting

The Indians of South America give us tapioca, corn, cocaine and quinine.

As our merchant marine flag is again flying on the seven seas, one should not form his opinion of the Latin race from our moving picture or theatre representations of them, nor from the travelers' guide book, but read such articles as are found in the "Pan American Union," or the March, April and May editions of "Current History." An insight of Spanish society may be found in Harry Frauck's "Tramping Through Mexico and Central America," "Mexico of the Twentieth Century," by P. F. Martin; "Beyond the Mexican Sierras," by Dillon Wallace, and others. Delightful and instructive books on South America are: "Observations and Impressions of South America," by James Bryce; "Working North from Patagonia," by Harry Frauck, and "Latin America," by W. R. Sheppard. We are finally beginning to follow the injunction of Alexander Hamilton, who in the 18th century said, "Think continentally."

Mrs. Wesley P. Bailey gave a general review of the writings of Anatole France, winner of the Nobel Literature Prize.

Mrs. A. B. Ross, Chairman of Music, presented a novel Christmas entertainment. The room was made dark but for the burning of candles and the lanterns carried by the entertainers. It was Old England come back in her quaint dress carrying lighted lanterns and singing Christmas carols.

Mrs. Robert Nash was hostess, and to her was the credit due for the beautiful Christmas decorations. The aides were: Mrs. G. W. Orth, Mrs. Wm. Nash, Mrs. Joseph Nash, Mrs. T. O. Peacock, and Mrs. L. W. Nickerson.

Seniors Star in One-Act Plays

works at the shop, is liked very much by Mr. Slovsky, the proprietor, who gives her the privilege of sending complimentary flowers to good customers. At one time she gives orchids to a customer of little value, to instill some life into her so that she would marry Mr. Jackson, a wealthy man to whom she (Miss Wells) had been engaged for fifteen years. When Mr. Slovsky hears about Maude giving away orchids he is enraged and fires her.

In the meantime Mr. Jackson, hearing that Miss Wells, his wife-to-be, has been receiving orchids from another man, gets jealous, and after a love scene, the arrangements for a wedding are concluded. Mr. Slovsky hears about the wedding, and when Maude tells him that she practically arranged the wedding, and about the flowers that are to be ordered for the wedding, he re-engages Maude and the curtain drops.

Henry, the office boy, added many laughs to the play throughout the act. The cast included:

Henry Roy Smith
Maude Lois Smith
Mr. Jackson Philip Knutzen
Miss Wells Lucia Keim
Mr. Slovsky Louis Kicklin

The Senior Class wishes to thank and congratulate Miss Dowlin and Miss Jones for their hard work in coaching the two plays.

The Seniors also wish to thank the following for the help they received through the flowers and the trucks lent them to haul the plants: Mr. A. E. Wohlert, Mr. John Albrecht, Mr. John A. Miller, Messrs. Cook Brothers.
